JUDGE SHERMAN In Sensational Dewey Case SUSPENDS JURY

CHANGES IN PLEADINGS

Extraordinary Developments in 76 Million Dollar Suit Against the Good Government Club of Boston— Were Signals Made to Witness by One of the Defend- ants?

MORRIS USES UNLAWFUL STREET

Matthew Cummings, national president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, in a long-distance telephone talk from New York with a reporter of the BOSTON AMERICAN to-day, outlined the plea for a jury upon which he will stand as a candidate for Mayor of this city.

Reporter:—When was your last visit to Boston, Mr. Cummings?

Mr. Cummings:—We leave for Boston to-day on the 1:03 train and reach Boston at 7 o'clock. The Mayor, William D. Bennett, states, in a letter of the 2d of June, that he will be with me, as will also William Hall, president of the National Hibernians and members of the national executive board.

Reporter:—What can you say to-day about your candidacy for Mayor of Boston?

Mr. Cummings:—My candidacy for Mayor of Boston is entirely in the hands of a committee of my friends, and I will not make a statement before I can hear a personal statement to the press. This I shall do as soon as possible after my arrival here.

Reporter:—Your candidacy for Mayor will be made on what platform?

Mr. Cummings:—My name will be presented to the voters of Boston, simply as a candidate for the office of Mayor. My platform will be to bring about a change in the present administration of the city.

Former Judge Henry S. Dewey to-day in his suit against five members of the Good Government Association for $76,450,000 damages for alleged libel, charged that his competitor for the Republican nomination for Mayor, Louis A. Frothingham, received his nomination through fraud, chicanery and deceit by the Good Government Association, the Traction Trust and the Money Trust.

Dewey made this accusation in his opening address to the second jury impaneled in the remarkable case. The first jury was dismissed to-day because it was alleged that John Mason Little, one of the most prominent men in Boston, and one of the five defendants, coached Edmund Billings, secretary of the Good Government Association, when he was on the stand.

Dewey is warned.

Following the dismissal of the first jury to-day, a second one was soon chosen and the trial started over again. During one of the last sessions Dewey and Judge Sherman, the latter threatened to take the case from the jury wholly and leave it to the court.

At that time Judge Sherman called attention to the fact that the jury was not a jury of the people, but a jury of the court, and that the jury was not a jury of the people, but a jury of the court, and that the jury was not a jury of the people, but a jury of the court.

"False Pretence No. 1."

On the 2d of June, Matthew Cummings, secretary of the Good Government Association, issued a reply to my article, in which he stated that the jury was not a jury of the people, but a jury of the court, and that the jury was not a jury of the people, but a jury of the court.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—Following a night of terror, rioting again broke out to-day in the trolley straits. Cars were wrecked and cried off the rails by mobs, their crews terribly beaten and the police attacked.

Dynamite Threat to Motorist.

At 10 o'clock, when he is in charge of the car, the motorist is in a position to be attacked by a mob of rioters, who are in a position to be attacked by a mob of rioters, who are in a position to be attacked by a mob of rioters.

NORMAN H. WHITE, WHO THREATENS TO OPPOSE DRAPER

The situation of Representative Norman H. White of Boston, that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor next Fall if Governor Draper's bill is enacted into law, was the topic for discussion today at the State House, in State street and in other places where politicians and men of affairs gather.

The "prevail" attached to his candidacy practically make no one a candidate, and Representative White today said: "The Governor will not go through with the bill, the House of Representatives will not pass it."

Regulators in favor of the bill were sure that it is going through. They said, however, that White's candidate for Governor will not be the Republican party in Massachusetts in the tightest he has been in for many years.

Governor Draper and Representative Robert M. Washburn of Worcester were in conference today over the proposed creation of a holding company to bring back into Massachusetts the Boston & Maine Railroad stock now held outside the State by friends of the New Haven road.

Washburn, Draper and Representative White are following the candidate for Commonwealth's attorney, but Draper has been for the New Haven for some time, and that if any terms are to be dictated, Massachusetts will take place.

Great pressure has been exerted on the members of the Railroad Committee, Washburn, Draper and White, to support the bill. The bill is the only one which is being considered by the committee, and it is the only one which is being considered by the committee, and it is the only one which is being considered by the committee.

Washburn, Draper and White are following the candidate for Commonwealth's attorney, but Draper has been for the New Haven for some time, and that if any terms are to be dictated, Massachusetts will take place.

ZEPPELIN SHIPS FOR BOSTON-N. Y. LINE

The Boston-New York airship line has decided to use a craft modeled on the Zeppa airship, which will be built by Capt. Charles Goodyear in this country and will cost $100,000. Charles J. Goodyear, head of the company, says that though the necessary money is at hand, nothing will be attempted before next year. The company holds options on land in places in Allston, Cambridge, Newton and Worcester and Springfield.

WOODBURY'S FACIAL SOAP is safe for the most delicate skin because it contains antiseptic, sanative and healing properties and it is pure in the true sense of the word. It represents years of personal experience treating the skin and complexion.

Ordinary soap cleans only the surface of the skin while Woodbury's Facial Soap gets down into the pores and cleans out hidden impurities which cloud the complexion. Woodbury's Facial Soap is a skin tonic. It restores the facial charms of youth. It tones the complexion and preserves the texture of the skin.

Sold everywhere

As an example of the value we give, we sell a colonial model of our Master D. Davis at $59. There is no better piano made and there is none so good at this price or any other. Other famous styles of pianos and player pianos run to $100. For an inexpensive piano we have a very good instrument, fully guaranteed, of well-known make at $29. and others at even lower prices. Our one price to all protects. We have no catalogue.

DOVEY TRIES TO TRADE, BUT IS BALKED

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 3.—Upon being informed that it would not be possible for him to get infielder Alvin Storker from the Pirates, President George B. Dreyfus of the Boston team started negotiations for the purchase of Edward Abbatichio, but in this he was also rebuffed by President Dreyfus and Manager Clarke, who in borned whilst the Larabie boy would remain on the Pirates' roster this season. It would seem stronger if they were to return to Boston, where he came to Pittsburgh after a year's lay off. It is not clear whether the club has a contract to sign him in Beantown again, although he says he has nothing against the present owners of the Boston team. The Pirates' manager, John McGraw, and Chicago champion had tried to get outfielder John Bates away from him. Bates, however, was not interested, and they offered pitcher Reulbach, whom they recently tried to dispose of at the Boston sale, but he was not interested. That way but replied that he would like to have the Stearns line for Reulbach and infielder Leslie Zimmerman.

FOR KEEGHE

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 3.—Tony Capone of Chicago was knocked out by Stanley Kiechel with a blow to the jaw in the fourth round of a scheduled "main event" bout before the American Athletic Club.

The Westerner put up a miserable exhibition and seemed utterly unable to ward off the blows of the champion, who landed five or six punches in the first round. Nevertheless, a heavier blow waited to Capone was knocked down again in the fourth and fourth time in the fourth, on the last fall making the count.

travelling. "Come, tell me. Is he there with you?"

"Yes, he is," Esther replied joyously, jumping to the couch. "He's coming just to see papa this afternoon. He's always loved me—always. Oh, I'm so glad!"

Adrian contrasted his sister's joy with his own desolate state since his talk with the doctor. He was so miserable, so miserable. He was telling Esther all about it very dolefully when his butler's knock interrupted him.

Sir John's daughter entered breathless. "Papa has left immediately after breakfast. He's gone to the office, hoping to forestall a scene in the—of Sir John's leave, and had reached the house just as you came."

"Tell me, has my father been here?"

"He stopped on the couch with a great full excitement when told that Sir John had not yet taken place, and he was so excited that he forgot to be polite. He said, 'You go to bed, my dear,' she explained, when she got his breath. 'My father is coming here tomorrow. He'll be here at five o'clock.'"

"To insult father? What for?" Esther and Adrian cried together.

"Father on the Warpath."

MILLIONAIRE VISITS SLAYER BEHIND BARS

WATERBURY, Ct., June 3.—Philip Corbin of New Britain, president of the American Hardware Company (the hardware trust), and looked on as Connecticut's richest citizen, has returned from the state prison in Wethersfield, where he served his old chum, Charles Gilbert, a convict sentenced in 1884 for murder.

Forty-five years ago both men, with their way to make in the world, were members of the New York cricker team. Corbin was the star bowler and Gilbert was a terror at the bat. One day Gilbert, in a fit of rage, shot and killed Harry Caldwell. Corbin stood by his friend through the trouble, but Gilbert was regarded as lucky in escaping.

For forty-five years Mr. Corbin has been as good as his word. Every six months he journeys to Wethersfield and sits for an hour at one end of a long table. Corbin is a man of a long admitted influence, he declines to make any effort to obtain Gilbert's pardon. "He is guilty," says the hardware man. "He knows he deserves his punishment."

These visits are the only bright spots in my life," Gilbert has said often. "Always keep your temper, Phil; remember me."

Mr. Squire and Chief of Police Minnerly are today investigating a mysterious murder on the Steeple Hollow section of John D. Rockefeller's estate. Mrs. A. Toppit, a woman who lives a few hundred feet from where the murder was committed, gave the clue to the authorities.

Mrs. Popput delivers milk here and, according to her story, she was driving down the Sheepy Hollow road past the Rockefeller estate, and when at the entrance to the Duck farm she saw the body of a man lying face up in the road covered with blood. The police found a pool of blood. The body had vanished.
